

Pokanoket Heritage Day

Sunday
August 8th
1:00 -5:00 pm
at Burr's Hill Park
Warren, RI

This free event will give visitors a Native American perspective on life in the East Bay (Sowams) from past centuries to the present day through dancing, singing, drumming, storytelling, craft, wetu construction, cooking demonstrations, and illustrated presentations on Pokanoket history and culture. Displays will feature beadwork, blankets, basketry, pottery, and other items. Children will be invited to participate in beading, leathercraft and storytelling.

Storytelling
Crafts & Displays

Demonstrations

